

Mr. PA NGOUN KEA

Executive Council Member of National Center of Commercial Arbitration.

Member of Council of the Bar Association of the Kingdom of Cambodia.

Chief Counsel of Independent Group of Lawyers (private law firm).

Current address: #376 A. Preah Monivong Boulevard, Sangkat Boeng Keng Kang I, Khan Chamkar Mon, Phnom Penh, Cambodia.

Phone: (855) 12 346 794

Email: ngounkeapa_att@yahoo.com

Mr. PA Ngoun Kea was born in 1975 two months after the Khmer Rouge took power, in Kampong Cham Province, the second largest provinces in Cambodia. Current position he is holding includes Executive Council Member of National Center of Commercial Arbitration, Member of Council of the Bar Association of the Kingdom of Cambodia, and Chief Counsel of Independent Group of Lawyers (private law firm).

Mr. PA received a Bachelor Degree of Law in 1997 (first promotion of law student in Cambodia) and graduated Master of Laws (private laws) in 2006 from Royal University of Law and Economics in Cambodia. He was recognized as Arbitrator of the first promotion and has received further training lately as trainer for legal profession from Japan and the United States of America.

Mr. Pa has conducted outstanding legal profession involving variety of subject matters which include job litigation, land issues, commercial litigation, company establishment and dissolution, and form proceeding for license and registration of a company, and shares transfer. He is specializing further in writing contracts of many kinds including commerce, property lease and sale, and construction.

Mr. PA is acting as Client Representative for a group of investors in the field of rice exports in Cambodia, Counsel for a transportation company, a company importing sport merchandise, and a company importing steel from China and Viet Nam. He is well known recently by outstanding provision of legal services involving lease-buy-sale property and security exchange.